

September 9, 2022

There has been lots happening nationally with stick curling:

The 2022 National Stick Curling Championship was held in Moncton NB in April 2022.

Betty Mattson and Audrey Dorey of Wolfville CC won the women's division championship
Resby Coutts and Norm Magnusson won the open division championship

You can see the championship games at https://canadianstickcurling.ca/?page_id=1898

The 2023 National Stick Curling Championship will be held in Nanaimo, BC in April 2023.

The CSCA website has been updated – check it out at <https://canadianstickcurling.ca>

A CSCA strategic plan has been created and discussed with the Board.

The CSCA is also going through a visioning exercise in conjunction with the strategic planning process.

Wood Gundy is reconfirmed as the CSCA sponsor

Efforts continue to have stick curling recognized at the 55+ Games

Curling Canada has developed a stick curling e-learning module that CSCA reviewed and provided feedback on.

CSCA developed a package of stick curling materials that were sent to Sweden

Two members of the CSCA executive and a board member attended the Curling Canada Diversity conference. The CSCA made a lunchtime presentation on stick curling.